A MESSAGE FROM AWSA PRESIDENT

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE AUSTRALIAN WOMEN'S SOCCER ASSOCIATION

It is certainly my pleasure to welcome all players, officials, and supporters to the 1998 National Youth Championship in Elizabeth, South Australia, on behalf of the Board and management of the Australian Women's Soccer Association.

This week we can eagerly look forward to another Youth Championship showcasing the best young athletes from around the country. Without doubt, this age division represents our sport's biggest mover, both in terms of numbers playing the game, and the incredible advancement in standard of play.

Women's football in Australia continues to grow in stature and professionalism, with this year seeing twenty members of our Australian Team commencing full-time scholarships at the Australian Institute of Sport in Canberra. Together they are undertaking a concentrated training program in preparation for the 1999 World Cup and the 2000 Olympic Games.

I look forward to players competing at this very championship becoming part of that system in the future.

The senior National Team has risen quickly up the world rankings over recent times, and if we are to maintain and improve that standing, our youth footballers also need to gain exposure at the international level. Consequently, the National Youth Team program has been re-established, and those selected will embark on a tour to Europe at the end of next month.

With regard to the host State, it is truly exciting to have witnessed the great strides and achievements produced by South Australia, one of the smaller States - two consecutive National Junior titles, on top of their two Ansett Summer Series grandfinals appearances.

I extend my thanks to the entire committee and affiliates of the South Australian Women's Soccer Association, in particular President Shirley Brown and Executive Officer Wendy Carter, and wish them every success in promoting and hosting this Championship.

To all participants, I hope you enjoy a memorable week's competition, camaraderie, and enjoyment here in Adelaide.

DENNIS O'BRIEN

A MESSAGE FROM THE HOST PRESIDENT

Welcome to South Australia for the National Women's Youth Soccer Championships.

I am sure all squads are here ready to reap the rewards of their dedication and hard work leading up to this competition and the South Australian Women's Soccer Association looks forward to an exciting and challenging tournament.

SAWSA is delighted to have one of its Premier League Clubs show leadership and initiative by hosting the youth championships. This week is the culmination of many hours of hard work by the Elizabeth City Soccer Club and credit must go to the organising committee for a great job.

Women's soccer in South Australia celebrates its 20th birthday in 1998 and the Association is enjoying a rapid growth with more young players taking up the game each year. It is great to be able to host a national championship to showcase the best talent in the country as part of our birthday celebrations.

On behalf of SAWSA I wish all teams, players, officials and supporters an enjoyable and successful tournament.

Shirley Brown
President
